

Luke Duke

- Everyone needs a “Red Bible”.
- Next week is the much anticipated week to start reading the book of Luke!

Groups - 10 Minutes

- Pray for your groups’ participation in the upcoming Luke Challenge and
- Discuss: What do you hope to get out of reading through the book of Luke? What do you hope to learn? In what ways do you hope to grow?

The Bible (Holy Scripture)

- “The Bible is not a collection of independent writings but one book of inter-dependent writings telling one story. A unity binds the whole together.” (Shackelford, p48)
- The OT closes with the promise of a Messiah (Malachi 3:1; means “ruler”), and the NT begins with the Messiah’s coming. (Matthew 1:1, 18, 22-23)
- “All Scripture is God-breathed.” (2 Timothy 3:16)
- The bible is inspired by God: “...men spoke from God as they were carried along by the Holy Spirit.” (2 Peter 1:20-21)

Books of the New Testament

1. Four gospels—these books mainly focus on the life and ministry of Jesus.
2. Acts (of the Apostles)—this history book is volume two of Luke.
3. Paul wrote thirteen letters, preserved as New Testament books.
4. Who wrote Hebrews? We don't know.
5. James, the oldest brother of Jesus (Mark 6:3) wrote James.
6. Peter, the apostle wrote two books—1 Peter and 2 Peter.
7. John wrote five books—John, 1 John, 2 John, 3 John, and Revelation.
8. Jude wrote Jude.

The great message of the New Testament is found in John 3:16. (Underline)
