

Luke Duke (Group 15 Minutes)

- Why do you think Luke began his book the way he did? Luke 1:1-4

How do the following verses describe or name Jesus? Luke 1:32-33, 35; 2:11, 26,30-32—

- Spend some time in prayer as a group asking God to bless us with understanding as we read the book of Luke.

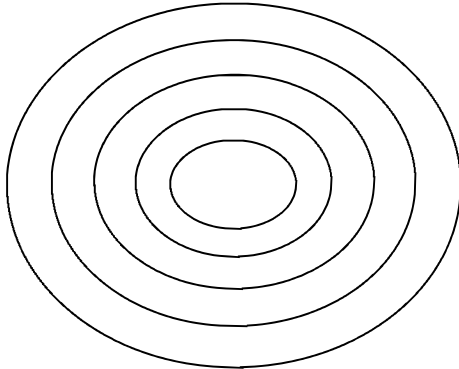

Faith Builder

Do you remember the reading term "context clues" from school? What does that term mean in your own words?

What would you do if someone said to you, "Based on Luke 11:15, Jesus was driving out demons because he followed Satan. Look for yourself!"

Important Truth: Understanding the _____ of a verse or text is crucial for understanding the _____ in the Bible.

Let's Peel The Scripture Onion!

Good questions to ask while studying:

- What _____ in the text help reveal the setting? (Details like date, time, place, emotions, etc.)
- Who are the individuals and _____ mentioned in the text? (ex. John)
- Why did the writer write this text? What is he trying to _____?
- Is there a concept or principle found in this text that _____ to me today?

During This Week:

Read your Luke chapters with contextual understanding!

I will plan to read Luke this week on: _____

Luke Duke (Group 15 Minutes)

- Why do you think Luke began his book the way he did? Luke 1:1-4

How do the following verses describe or name Jesus? Luke 1:32-33, 35; 2:11, 26,30-32—

- Spend some time in prayer as a group asking God to bless us with understanding as we read the book of Luke.

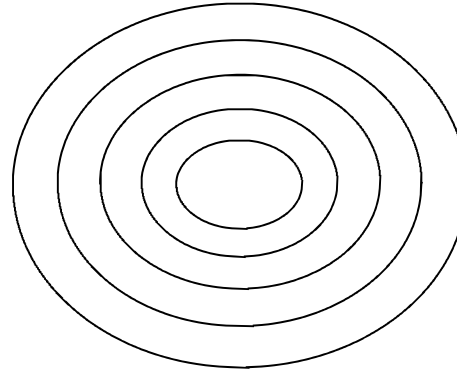

Faith Builder

Do you remember the reading term "context clues" from school? What does that term mean in your own words?

What would you do if someone said to you, "Based on Luke 11:15, Jesus was driving out demons because he followed Satan. Look for yourself!"

Important Truth: Understanding the _____ of a verse or text is crucial for understanding the _____ in the Bible.

Let's Peel The Scripture Onion!

Good questions to ask while studying:

- What _____ in the text help reveal the setting? (Details like date, time, place, emotions, etc.)
- Who are the individuals and _____ mentioned in the text? (ex. John)
- Why did the writer write this text? What is he trying to _____?
- Is there a concept or principle found in this text that _____ to me today?

During This Week:

Read your Luke chapters with contextual understanding!

I will plan to read Luke this week on: _____

Luke Duke (Group 15 Minutes)

- Why do you think Luke began his book the way he did? Luke 1:1-4

How do the following verses describe or name Jesus? Luke 1:32-33, 35; 2:11, 26,30-32—

- Spend some time in prayer as a group asking God to bless us with understanding as we read the book of Luke.

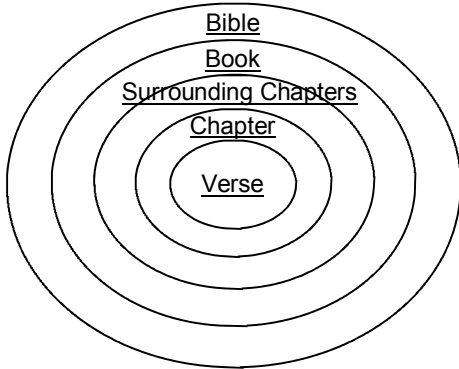

Faith Builder

Do you remember the reading term "context clues" from school? What does that term mean in your own words?

What would you do if someone said to you, "Based on Luke 11:15, Jesus was driving out demons because he followed Satan. Look for yourself!"

Important Truth: Understanding the context of a verse or text is crucial for understanding the truth in the Bible.

Let's Peel The Scripture Onion!

- Good questions to ask while studying: - What clues in the text help reveal the setting? (Details like date, time, place, emotions, etc.) - Who are the individuals and groups mentioned in the text? (ex. John) - Why did the writer write this text? What is he trying to point out? - Is there a concept or principle found in this text that applies to me today?

During This Week:

Read your Luke chapters with contextual understanding!

I will plan to read Luke this week on: _____

Luke Duke (Group 15 Minutes)

- Why do you think Luke began his book the way he did? Luke 1:1-4

How do the following verses describe or name Jesus? Luke 1:32-33, 35; 2:11, 26,30-32—

- Spend some time in prayer as a group asking God to bless us with understanding as we read the book of Luke.

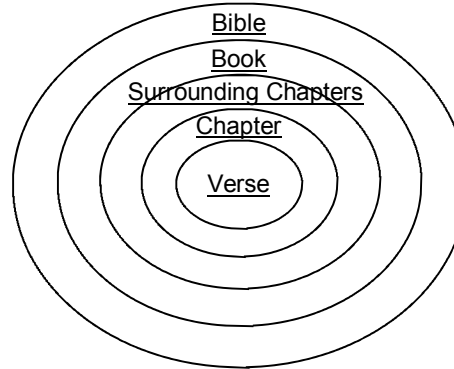

Faith Builder

Do you remember the reading term "context clues" from school? What does that term mean in your own words?

What would you do if someone said to you, "Based on Luke 11:15, Jesus was driving out demons because he followed Satan. Look for yourself!"

Important Truth: Understanding the context of a verse or text is crucial for understanding the truth in the Bible.

Let's Peel The Scripture Onion!

- Good questions to ask while studying: - What clues in the text help reveal the setting? (Details like date, time, place, emotions, etc.) - Who are the individuals and groups mentioned in the text? (ex. John) - Why did the writer write this text? What is he trying to point out? - Is there a concept or principle found in this text that applies to me today?

During This Week:

Read your Luke chapters with contextual understanding!

I will plan to read Luke this week on: _____